

Mechanics

Tristan Slater

October 3, 2022

Spring force:

$$F_s = kx \tag{1}$$

Damper force:

$$F_d = b\dot{x} \tag{2}$$

For springs/dampers between 2 masses, always assume right minus left displacement delta (i.e., $x_2 - x_1$). This assumes the the spring has been stretched from equilibrium which implies an inward force.